

Woodhouse Opening Ceremony

On Monday 12th December 2005, the new Woodhouse Primary Care Health Centre was officially opened to the Public.

The ceremony was attended by local Councillor Kabeer Hussain; Cllr Peter Harrand Exec Board member for Social care & health; Cllr Brian Jennings Exec Board member for Children's Services; retired GPs from the former Woodhouse Health centre; representatives from Leeds City Council Social Services; representatives from Sure Start; Drs and staff from Dr Kinghorn's practice; Brian Marsden Chair Leeds North East PCT; Thea Stein Chief Exec Leeds North East PCT; Trevor Plows Leeds North East PCT; representative from local pharmacies; patients from the Chiropody clinic; Nigel Fenny Chief Exec for Leeds LIFT Limited and Tom Delamotte Regional Director Miller Construction (UK) Limited.

The ribbon was officially cut by Mr Alfred Marriott, aged 96, the oldest registered patient at Dr Kinghorn's practice.

Speeches were given by Brian Marsden, Nigel Fenny and Dr Kinghorn.

Christmas carols and songs were performed by children from Little London and Quarry Mount Primary Schools.

